

CUSTOMER-CENTRIC SALES TECHNIQUES

GENTEX[®]
TRAINING CENTER

Introduction

Sales have evolved significantly over the past decade. In the past, sales professionals often relied on traditional sales tactics that focused on pushing a product or service to potential customers. However, with the rise of customer expectations, the shift has moved towards a more personalized, customer-first approach. To be successful in today's competitive business environment, sales professionals must adopt strategies that prioritize the customer's needs, desires, and pain points.

Gentex Training Centers Customer-Centric Sales Techniques course is designed to equip professionals with the skills and strategies necessary to build strong, lasting relationships with customers. By emphasizing the importance of understanding customer psychology, behavior, and preferences, this five-day course will teach participants how to enhance their sales techniques and develop strategies that are tailored to their customers. Whether working in B2B or B2C sales, this course is focused on equipping professionals to meet the evolving demands of today's market.
